

4. Chile	95	c. France, May Events of 1968	130
a. The right mobilizes against Salvador Allende, 1972-73	95	d. Germany (West)	130
b. Resisting the Pinochet dictatorship, 1973-90	96	e. USA	130
5. Panama, Resisting Noriega 1987-89	97	2. Resistance to the Vietnam War, 1961-73	131
6. Uruguay, Resisting military rule 1973-84	98	Introduction
V. Middle East	99	a. General	132
Introduction (including references to Lebanon 2005)		b. Australia	133
1. Iran, Overthrowing the Shah 1979-1980	100	c. South Vietnam (Buddhists)	133
2. Palestine	101	d. USA	134
a. Palestinian resistance after 1967 and the First Intifada, 1987-1992	102	3. Peace movements since 1945	137
b. Israeli opposition to Israel's occupation	104	Introduction
E. Campaigns for Cultural, Civil and Political Rights	106	a. General: national and transnational movements	137
I. Nationalist Rights or Self Determination	106	b. Pacifist protest, conscientious objection and draft resistance	139
1. Welsh Nationalism and nonviolent action	106	i. Pacifist and nonviolent thought	140
II. Campaigns for Civil Rights	107	ii. Conscientious resistance and legal frameworks	141
1. The Civil Rights Movement and Black Power in the USA, 1955-68	107	c. Opposition to nuclear weapons since the 1950s	144
2. Northern Ireland	113	i. Theoretical debates about nuclear weapons	145
a. The Civil Rights Movement 1967-72	114	ii. Comparative and general studies	146
b. The Protestant workers' strike 1974	116	iii. Studies of particular countries, campaigns or actions	148
c. The Peace People, nonviolent intervention to halt violence 1976-1979	117	d. Campaigns against specific wars or acts of aggression (excluding Vietnam)	151
F. Campaigns for Social and Economic Justice	119	e. Protests against militarism	153
Introduction		4. Feminist Protest since the 1960s	155
1. Demands for land reform and land occupations	119	Introduction
2. Protests by the unemployed	121	a. Protest for Women's Rights	157
a. Dolci and the reverse strike	121	b. Women's strikes	158
3. Factory occupations	121	c. Feminist direct action for peace	158
a. Britain and Europe	122	5. Green Campaigns since the 1970s	159
4. Significant strikes	122	Introduction
a. California grape pickers' strike, 1965-1970	123	a. General studies and transnational protest	160
b. The British miners' strike, 1984-1985	123	b. Country studies	162
5. Campaigns by homeless (squatting)	124	c. Campaigns against nuclear power	163
6. Protests against unjust taxes and rents	124	d. Campaigns against deforestation	163
a. Taxes	124	e. Campaigns against dams	164
i. Poll tax protests, Britain, 1989-90	125	f. Campaigns against mining and pollution	164
ii. Fuel tax protests, 2000	125	g. Campaigns against roads, airports, redevelopment etc.	165
b. Rent Strikes	125	6. Campaigns for Indigenous Rights since the 1960s	165
G. Nonviolent Action in Social Movements	127	Introduction
Introduction and references to:		a. Australia	166
a. National/area studies	127	b. Canada	166
b. Transnational issues and campaigns	128	c. New Zealand	167
1. The New Left and student movements, 1960s	128	d. USA	167
Introduction		7. Global Justice Movement against Global Neoliberalism and Multinational Corporations	167
a. General and comparative	129	Introduction
b. Britain	130	a. General	168